FUTURES

If you run away from home or care you could be exposed to serious danger and risk being exploited.

We understand that wanting to run away may be a sign that you are unhappy, stressed or worried about something happening in your life.

If you are in danger, or it is not safe for you to stay at home, it's very important that you can talk with someone you can trust.

St Christopher's free Young Runaways Helpline offers you the chance to discuss your concerns confidentially and get advice and support.
