Making Projects Happen

Tessa Hilder, AHF Support Officer, South East & East of England

Daniel Rose, AHF Support Officer, London
What do we do?

• Charity (established 1976) with £750k; now nearly £13m in lending resources

• We provide:
  • advice and support
  • small grants for early project development
  • loans for acquisition/working capital

• To enable sustainable re-use of heritage buildings at risk by not-for-profit community enterprise organisations
Community organisations bring:

- Passion, commitment, drive, resilience
- Skills: professional, technical, practical
- Access to funding and finance
- Access to external agency support
- Wider community buy-in and political support
What skills do you need?
Good skills to aim for:

• Leadership
• Financial
• Business
• Legal – not-for-profit sector
• Property – development and management
• Communications – social media, community engagement
• Administrative
• Fundraising – bid development, events/community
• Heritage (buildings, learning, interpretation)
Getting started on your project

Viability appraisal – what are the options?

Fundraising – what are the potential sources of funds?

Business planning – will the use be financially sustainable?
Investigating viability – key questions:

• Planning context? Heritage significance?
• Repair needs and cost?
• Potential for adaptation ↔ heritage significance. Cost?
• Possible uses (↔ adaptation)?
• Demand/market for uses? ↔ local стратегический контекст, консультации, сравнители, конкуренция, отверстия?
• Business potential of uses: running costs/income?
• Funding sources (for delivery) ↔ fit with funder outcomes?
• Preferred option (based on pros and cons)

Funding sources:

- Lottery: Heritage Lottery Fund (Heritage Grants or Heritage Enterprise), Arts Council, Big Lottery Fund.

- Statutory: Historic England, local authorities, S.106, London Enterprise Panel

- Trusts and Foundations – generally only to charities

- Individuals – philanthropists, community events, Crowdfunding (Gift Aid)

- Social investment – Community Shares (Community Benefit Societies only), loans eg AHF, Charity Bank

- Corporate sponsorship
Why fund your project?

- Outcomes? Will it deliver the change and impact that the funder wants to achieve?
- Strong evidence of demand/need?
- Value for money?
- Sustainability:

  “Organisations who are sustainable can demonstrate effective leadership and financial management and the ability to change, adapt and reach to funding and market opportunities.”
