Throwing Fireworks

Enfield’s Public Spaces Protection Order prohibits you from holding or throwing fireworks to intimidate or cause alarm or distress. If you do not comply this can lead to a £100 fixed penalty notice or face prosecution in court.

Deliberate carelessness and intimidation with fireworks can be more costly than you imagine.

You could be charged with Criminal Damage, Actual Bodily Harm or Grievous Bodily Harm.

www.enfield.gov.uk/asb

---

Reporting Anti-social behaviour
- Enfield Council www.enfield.gov.uk/asb
- Telephone Met Police on 101
- In an emergency always call 999

Home Fire Safety
- London Fire Brigade www.london-fire.gov.uk/safety

Remember – behaving anti-socially could impact on your tenancy.